Title:	Permanence means what?
Picture:
Caption:	Everyone knows what Sun is. But how many of us will pay much attention to it? Is it means that permanence equal to no value?
Commentary:	The main object of this photo is the Sun. I took it when I was waiting for my friend on the street. When I was looking at the Sun, I sighed emotionally. To most of us, Sun irradiating us is deserved. It rises and sets everyday. Who will spend a little time to thank the Sun for giving us light and heat? The answer is NO. Because we don't pay anything to have it. The Sun had been being with us since we were born. We always want to get something that we don't have. And we never treasure the thing that we have already had. We started to treasure something when we were losing it. But it was too late. I really feel disappointed with this. From now on, please treasure the thing that you are having now. Nothing will be with you deservedly.
