Title:	No one should stop!
Picture:
Caption:	No matter what the future will be, everyone should face it positively. Just like the athletes, that we should never give up should be our life's motto
Commentary:	During our limited lifetime, there are a lot of difficulties on the way to make our dream come true. As someone said, life is like a marathon, which is arduous but meaningful, and no one should stop during the event. Before participating in the event, we need to work hard for the practice. It is more or less the same as our unforeseeable life; when we are studying, we are preparing for our future. It is somehow like getting more experience to tackle difficulties in our life. No matter how zealous or how serious we treat the practice, we cannot control and predict what the result is. Just like the athlete in the picture: what will she meet in the remaining match? No one knows! However, one thing is certain: as an athlete, with the spirits of sports, she must hold on straight to the end. By the same token, we cannot blame god and men for the dissatisfying situation that we encounter. "Never give up!" should be our attitude towards the obstacles. I hope this picture can remind all of you that there is nothing called failure as long as you believe in the motto of 'Never give up', and success will be in the not distant future.
