Living in the midst of the hustle and bustle life of Hong Kong, most Hong Kong people are apparently stressed out. Students are overcome with tests and examinations, while laborers are occupied with 'OT's. The burden of living drives us to work like a machine, forcing us to contribute day and night for the sake of making money. When can we actually stop and end such kind of tedious life? We all want to escape from reality and enter the world of magic and fantasy. It is a place where we can shed the millstone, a place where we can become a child again, a place where we can simply make everything surreal real! We dream of and love such a place. Literally, the idea of escapism is in everyone's minds. For example, Disneyland, is the perfect dreamland where we can make our dreams come true! There Age relives fond memories and there Youth may relish the trial and promise of the unknown future. Making itself an ideal, dreamy and miraculous world, you can indulge in the romantic love of Beauty and the Beast, enter the adventurous world as Buzz and come face to face with Stitch. How can we actually resist the temptation of this place? It is universally appealing because it is a source of happiness and amusement for the visitor. Most importantly, you can find yourself escaping from the realistic world. Indulging ourselves in fictional things is always an ideal means of escape. These things can take us away from our busy lives and enable us to rest and relax. Are you ready for this miraculous journey?
